62 10 CS PARK ROW, NEW YORK. THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 8.

BUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

kntered at the Peat-Offee at New York as second

STANCH OFFICER: WORTH, HARLEN OFFICE-12578 ST. AND MADISON AVE. ROUKLY N-309 WARRINGTON ST MILADELPHIA, PA.-LEDDER BUILDING, 112 SULTBURDT, WASHINGTON-61914:18 ST.

THE WORLD will not, under any circum tences, hold itself responsible for the return er sare-keeping of any resected manuscripts at pictures, of whatsoever character or value. report to either letters or inclosures. Nor will the editor enter into correspondence con-

> THE WORLD'S record for November shows the total number of papers printed to have

11,767,090, which number is a gain

1,965,880

WORLDS for November, 1892, over November, 1891. This is an average daily gain of 65,529.

The daily average of WORLDS printed during November was 392,236,

and the daily average of WORLDS printed for the first eleven months of 1892 has been 381,761.

WORLD Advertisevember, 1892, numbered 68,749.

a month's record unapproached by any other newspaper.

The Evening World Frints Assoclated Press News.

It is the people who will be inaugurated arch 4th next.

The teakettle is boiling over again in Rio Grande do Sul. Senator Hill sounds the charge against dangerous silver makeshifts.

Mr. CARNEGIE will soon return from Europe. There is peace at Homestead.

See how quickly the next thousand will roll into THE EVENING WORLD Christmas-

A splendid meeting, that in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon, for the furtherance of the " Greater New York " scheme.

Laughter being a fine medicine, Actor surely one of the world's great physicheap lodging houses of the city.

serious charge of raising a riot in New assailants. Haven may see their recklessness in a new light. It's high time they were made

A runaway horse, fresh from the West, took in the Bowery vesterday and made has come out slightly shead of the street. tendent down.

Newark's school of criminal precocity to whom this censure might justly apply. ternal slipper no longer known in that the force.

The Courts having decided that the formers ; that they are actuated by per Interstate Commerce Commission cannot compel witnesses to testify, the Commis- the accusations they bring against the sioners will probably be a bit bothered to police are siant from malicious and unknow just where they and the statute founded.

creating them are atpeople less wide awake than the Quaker disorderly house. citizens might easily do that.

year which they would cost to the founded. country.

ONE GREAT CITY.

New York is a great city, but will be a much greater city when consolidated with | was the New York Senator's first impor-Brooklyn. Brooklyn is a great and growing city, but will be a much greater city and will grow with increased rapidity when consolidated with New York. It costs a great deal of money to govern but leaves in existence the section repeal city. That is to say, the expense of the lars' worth of silver builion, mental machinery instead of two sets; vaults at the rate of $2,000,000 a month one set of office-holders instead of two.

That is the explanation of the opposition of the political pairiots and place and would remain so. But friends wh hunters to consolidation. The Sugar profess to know his views assert that h Trust piles up its millions, because it seeks to sweep away all this silver legisla makes one refinery do the work of three. tion of 1878 and 1890, in order to clear the will make one city government do the which he believes will be acceptable to work of two.

If London were cut up into two separate cities, one on one side of the Averagitions will be made to this rule with Thames and the other on the other side, the cost of the government would be nearly doubled. If Paris were made into two capitals with the Seine dividing them, the same retult would follow.

Common sense says, let New York and Brooklyn be one great metropolis, no longer cut in two by the East River.

JAY GOULD'S WILL.

JAT GOULD'S will is a practical indorsement of the sentiment. " Charity begins at home." It illustrates the characteristies of the dead millionaire during his lifetime secretiveness, suspicion and selfishness. The $100,000,000 he amassed often at the price of ruin and misery to others - he leaves are his four children, Geonog, Enwin, among these the vacaucies are to be will spoil the garment's usefulness and filled by the younger children, FRANK and value as a relic. For after a Chestnut ties Anna. Thus the property is kept wholly street tailor has renovated it, put on new within control of his own immediate weatherboarding and given it an air of family, and but for the provisions of the modern gayety by adding patent buttons the trustees. Indeed, it is alleged that know the breeches and his descendants the trust was formed in the supposition would not care to issue a certificate of bad you would feel yourself if you were a that the tax would be avoided.

year each. Nothing is given to charity, wife would have traded for a bright tin dolls. If you were a poor, helpless little one since his death.

greatly sided those already in existence, either. He might have won respect for his name and memory through some great gift to selfish and grasping nature clung to him her with sharp legal sticks. The irreto the last, and his disposition of his pressible Mr. Gleason is herein sincerely wealth proves his indifference to public flattered. opinion and to public respect. It is to be boved that his money will be himself.

THE DAILEY CASE.

MATHEW F. DAILEY, having found the prisoner guilty of assaulting the mother of the girl MAMIE HANNAN, accompanied their verdict yesterday with a strong commendation to mercy.

If the verdict is a just one, in accordance with the evidence, what considerations can entitle the convicted man to clemency? He was a police officer. charged with the duty of protecting the people and preserving the peace. He had been trusted and favored by his superiors, having won the distinction of a roundsman's position. He was the last and committed an asseult upon a woman, cheaper is the old process of waiting on Although Dailey was acquitted of the the skies.

nore serious accusation made against him, it is evident that that he is unfit to FRED LESLIE, who died yesterday, was should be remeyed at once, even if his conviction does not compel his dismissal. Notwithstanding the recommendation of It is probably not too early that the the jury, he should receive the utmost. But they won't take the place of an ark in Board of Health has taken to providing penalty prescribed by the law for his a time of flood. new and thorough sanitary rules for the offense. There can be no safely for the people if the officers to whom they look for protection, taking advantage of their CLEVELAND a live rooster, with a large

THE PENDING QUARREL.

Or. Parkhurst charges that the police are connivers at and protectors of immorality and vice, and are in the pay of the keepers of disorderly houses and other unlawful resorts. This charge involves all the force from the Superintendent down.

There may be individuals on the police to whom this censure might justly apply.

But no sufficient and tangible evidence

THE PENDING QUARREL.

Cyclone in Texas, snow-storms in the Pinto are rich, give liberally as Mr. John W. Meckay, Mrs. Astor and others have done. If your means are restricted, give white the propose. They also furnish the Programmes and tickers, their whole contribution representing a money value of A new and sparking comedictia will be given. If your means are restricted, give whatever you can afford—a dime, a quarter a haif dollar or a dollar!

Senator Quay does not concede the next Senate to the Democrats. This would be important if Mr. Quay's consent or concession were necessory.

There may be individuals on the police to whom this censure might justly apply.

But no sufficient and tangible evidence

Cyclone in Texas, snow-storms in the Northwest and a December thunder.

Northwest and a December thunder.

W. C. Whitney, Mrs. Astor and others have done. If your means are restricted, give when the programmes and tickers, their whole contribution representing a money value of a hour starting comedictia will be given. W. C. Whitney, Mrs. Astor and others have done. If your means are restricted, give when the programmes and tickers, their whole contribution representing a money value of a hour starting contribution representing a money value of a hour start in the programmes and tickers, their whole contribution representing a money value of a hour starting contribution representing a money value of a hour start in the programmes and tickers, their whole contribution representing a money value of a hour start in the programmes and tickers, their whole chair in the programmes and tickers, their whole chair in the programmes and ticke are connivers at and protectors of immorality and vice, and are in the pay of the keepers of disorderly houses and one of the few instances in which a vis- other unlawful resorts. This charge iuiter from the "wild and woolly" section voives all the force from the Superinmust be yet flourishing. Burglars and But no sufficient and tangible evidence pickpockets aged twelve years and nine has yet been produced to bring such years are the latest graduates. Is the ma- crimes home to any prom nent officer of Supt. Brunes alleges that Dr. Pann-

EURST and his Society are not honest resonal and unworthy motives, and that

The principal and most confidential agent of Dr. PARKHURST's Society, his Philadelphia, while its own elevated companion and guide in his detective ratiway system still exists chiefly on visits to dens of vice. is now under heavy paper, is giving points to the long-estab- bail to answer a charge of blackmail and lished New York system. But, after all. extortion practised on the keeper of a

Thus far the Superintendent of Police seems to have the best of the fight. But Efforts are being made in the House to in the public interest and for the public's boom the circulation of that enterprising protection the people are entitled to know journal, the Congressional Record. The the exact truth. The Superintendent has paper is certainly unrivalled in its own no right to withhold any letters he may pecial field. But it is doubtful whether have bearing on the facts, and Dr. PAKKthe proposed additions to its list of regular takers would be worth the Sp5,000 a on which his broad accusations are IT IS NOW $1,086.77.

HILL AND BILVER

Senator Huar's introduction of a bill yesierday to repeal the Silver act of 1870 tant movement since he took his seat. It occasioned some surprise.

The bill repeals all that portion of the act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of Treasury notes thereon New York and Brooklyn separately. It ing so much of the act of 1878 as requires would cost less to govern them as one the monthly coinage of two million dol- A Big Entertainment to Be Given two city governments divided among the If Senator Hill's bill should become a citizens of both cities would be more law, the silver men would lose the present per capita than the expense of one con. act and also the Compulsory Comage law solidated city government. Reason be. which preceded it and piled up silver cause there would be one set of govern. dollars so inconveniently in the Treasury

It has been thought that Seustor Hil. was non-committal on the silver question Consolidation will save money because it way for a liberal Silver bill of his own all parties in interest.

KNEF-BREECHES COME HIGH.

A pair of George Washington's kne breeches sold for $310 at auction in Phile delubia vesterday. In St. Louis, when the human leg is in such a generall shrivelled condition that gentleme shrink from the decolleteness of Colonia costumes, the breeches would have gon for a song, but there is crural crepuse larity about the Philadelphian, and who the bievele pants worn by the Father His Country was put up at public vendue there it was to be expected that owners of old Colonial limbs would bid sharply World," Pulitzer Building.

for it. And they did. Hence the $340.

All parcels or packages containing do-

We are not informed about the fit of the breaches on the purchaser or whether he will have to get a gusset put into its basement or let out a tuck in the knee The American, National, United States almost entirely to his six children flounces. The chances are that if he and Westcott Express Companies will almost entirely to his six children houses. The cannot are that if he in trust. The trustees, without bonds, wants to get his money's worth of wear pounds weight and under, addressed as out of the ballowed unmentionables he Howard and Helen and in case of death will be obliged to make alterations that Inheritance Tax law there would be no and inserting a hypnotic pocket in the means of ascertaining its amount outside rear, George Washington would never stantial, on Dec. 25.

election to it. The only bequests outside those to his Three hundred and forty dollars is a JAY Gover either during his lifetime or Better and larger-legged pants are adver- rain tears, and don't you think your little tised in the papers every day for $3. heart would break? The deceased might have done much Russell Sage can go up the Bowery and good with the enormous amount of money buy a finer-fitting pants for $2, and there he accumulated. He might have founded won't be any patches on it from long and useful benevolent institutions or have hard sitting in the Presidential chair

Following the precious example of benefit his fellow-man, to relieve human illustrious Mayor Gleason, a Long Island suffering or to beautify the city, and City school jautress said she wouldn't be still have left each one of his put out. And up to this writing she children ten times a millionaire. But his basn't been, though the Trustees are after

Gov. Flower has received his marks better used by his heirs than it was by manship badge for his performance with the rifle at Creedinoor. It should cer- share towards rescuing Christmas from the tainly bear a reference to his ear ier bull's- prison-house of poverty and filling Santa eye in the Fire Island matter. How Claus's bog so full that he will have some-

Brooklyn is becoming aroused to the apportance and desirability of her conbilidation with New York importance and desirability of her con- are warriors in Santa Claus's army, and colsolidation with New York. Let the plans lect all you can for the Christmas-Tree Fund. for a splendid municipality be pushed by Each corps must number ten boys or girls, or the people at both ends of the bridge and the penny politicians will soon stand out of the way. Now it is declared that rain can be artificially produced, but that it will cost already a wonderfully large constituency. too much. It would come proportionately higher, per drop, than ottar of roses. man who should have broken the laws By which it will be seen how much Since election day, according to Gen. be a member of the police force, and he Clarkson, the reports show "renewed largest amount for the Fund, and the comenergy and courage on the part of all Republicans." Courage and energy are excellent things to have about the person.

Somebody in Indiana has sent Mr. Yale students called to answer the very position, become their persecutors and and triumphant and Democratic crow. A Republican crow also came from Indiana, but that was different.

MAN wants . but little . here below ... but everybody. wants . . .

Hornby's Oatmeal

For breakfast. .

The Christmas-Tree Fund Money Making Steady Advances.

Little Blue Eyes" Sends $20 for the Tots.

at Hardman Hall,

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Malere
THE PRESING WORLD
Proviously acknowledged	9
Little Blue Eyes
Mary M. Gilroy
Mies Kidd Fair at 70 East One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street
V. E. B
Willie and Jim
Mamie Conrad and Julia Weber Eleie May and Elizabeth Ritsert and Harry Bischoff
J. Russell Marel
J. M. K
Rockville Centre, L. I.
Irene Schneider,
Giffords, S. I
Harry Allen,
Mart, Bayonne City
Berthy II.
Benjamin Hant
G. F. Travers
Morris and Millis Green
Mary and Gerald Rodrigusz
Mary and Jessie Keller
J. D
F. H., West Thirty-ninth strees
J. Forstat

above, free of charge.

The New York Transfer Company (Dodd's Express) will call for and deliver packages free of charge on notifica-

Make Christmas a day of joy for the poor! Don't let any child in New York, Brooklyn or Jersey City be without a toy or a taste of candy, if it does not get something more sub-

Just stop for one moment and think how child and found yourself without a present on Christmas Day, while all the air around you own children are to his brother and two great deal of money to give for an old was filled with the heating of drums, the sister, who receive $25,000 and $2,000 a pair of pants that any New York house- blasts of tin horns and the voices of talking but then charity has given but little to saucepan or a gleaming glass cake-stand, and everybody around you had everything spend 10 cents, so I thought I would send it to some bacy who may need it. I will CHRISTMAS THEE CORPS BADGE. Well, don't let any child feel the pangs of such privation this year. You can do your it can comprise both sexes. Each must contribute at least 50 cents, and when $5 is raised and sent in the ten badges will be furnished. If you are a Democrat you can send a dollar or or two for the Baby Ruth Tree, which has best for the Christmas charity enter the competition for the valuable little thoroughbred lox terrier, Merry Christmas, whose mother was the $2.00 Buletta and whose father was Billy Pinkerton, also a high-priced dog.

or girl, under fourteen who collects the petition will end at 12 M. Dec. 17. The dog is ow at the Christmas Tree-Fund depot, 96 than ever reminded that Christmas is near, to which we look forward with so much hope and pleasure. We want to assist you is not in some of our constant of the constant of th Christmas is Near. ing some of our poor little friends happy, and, therefore, send you $2' for the Haby Ruth Christmas Tree, and hope it may make others do likewise. We wish you and the little ones that you are berriending a merry Christmas. Henman and Louise Lemmenwans, Henman and Louise Lemmenwans,

A Baby Ruth Club.

te il e Editer As there is no Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Club in Procklyn, I have organized one among Shirts to order, my little friends in this place. If my purse were as great as my pity for the poor there would be no unhappy children on Christmas

Please publish this, as I have charge of their pennies, which I send to you. Contrib-utors: Edwin Ward Copeland, 227 Halsey street. In cents; Viota Van Wicklen, 257 Halsey Street. 2 cents; Grace Balley, 582 Summer avenue, 10 cents; Dalay Mosscrop, 411 Tompkins avenue, 5 cents; Charlie Moss-crop, 411 Tompkins avenue, 5 cents; Fay Emerson, Hancock Street, 5 cents; Willie Gorhme, 345 Hancock street, 5 cents; Marie Evans, 25 cents; Rudolph Evans, 25 cents; Perkins Evans, 10 cents; sulletta Evans, 10 cents: cash, 5 cents; total, $1.22. Marie Evans, 413 Tompkins avenue, Brookipa, N. Y.

Going to Be Good.

Our mamma told us if we were good chilcents. We were very good, so you will find 10 cents from Lillie and 10 cents from little Harry. If all the school children would be good and send their 5 or 10 cents for getting good tickets on Friday what a great big Caristmas free Santa Claus would leave for the poor children. We are going to be good and try to send 20 cents more next Friday.

Lillie AND HARKY.

Out of Irene's Bank. Inclosed please find 25 cents, which I took out o my bank to give to the Christmas Tree It that the above named quantity of food is broad and 144 deep.

two eggs and one cup of sugar.

The German Emperor's Appetite.

for some poor child. I hope it will make it happy. IRENE Schneiden, three years old, 063 Gates avenue, brookly.i. An Admirer of the Work. To the Paid Please find inclosed postal note for 65

Their Little Friend.

I inclose herewith $1 for the Paby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund, which I hope may make a very merry Christmas for some of the poor little boys and girls of New York. Wishing them all a very merry Christmas, I remain their little friend. J. RUSSELL MARSH, seven years old, Westfield, N. J.

facts Editor: Inclosed find $20 for the Children's Imas Tree. Sent by "LITTLE BLUE EYES." Three Little Collectors.

Litte Blue Eves.

Santa Claus's day. Respectfully, ELRIE May RITSERT, ELIZABETH RITSERT, HARRY BISCHOPP. Willia and Jim. day a light meal is eaten late at night. Do you remember Jim the Parrot? Well, have a little friend this year, a boy baby named Willie, only five months old but very bright, and we have chipped in $1 each for the Christinas-Tree Fund, which we send in-closed, hoping that this little contribution may help to make some poor child as happy as we are.

WILLIK AND JIM. A Little Fair. Inclosed please find $4.05 for the Christ-

More Later. Inclosed find five cents for the Christmas-

Free Fund. I shall send more later. E. H., West Thirty-seventa street. This Was in German.

Please accept the inclosed $1 for the dear poor children's Christmas tree.

Candy Money Again. Inclosed please find three cents, which

She Loves Children. o the Editor: Inclused please find eight cents, all I have love children dearly and like to see them | Louise, Bayonne, N. J. A Baby Himself. To the Edito Inclosed find 10 cents for the Baby Ruth Tree. I am a baby myself and too small to on. J. CUNNINGHAM, 197 Degraw street, Brooklyn.

With Merry Xmas. To the Petitor I inclose 10 cents with as much merry tates is Pope Leo XIII. His breakfast, which pale blue, and have white frilled muslin curwould it do 'o engrave a big, big D on thing for every tot the every tenement of the Christmas towards your Baby Ruth Christmas your Baby Ruth

> To the Editor:
> I am only a little girl. I send 10 cents. Wishing it was more, I remain yours,
> ETHEL PLANT,
> 375 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn.
> P. S.—Merry Christmas.

From Mrs. F. W. Vanderbilt. Inclosed please find check from Mrs. F. W. Vanderblit to the amount of $30. Yours truly, M. DE Barkit, Secretary, 450 Fifth avenue.

The Liliputians' Managers.

We notice by THE EVENING WORLD that our check of $25 has been credited to the Liliputians while it was meant for our own subscription. We therefore ask you to acknowledge the receipt of the $25 we sent ourselves, and oblige, truly yours, C. and Th. Rosenfeld.

Christmas in Florida." Mr. Alexander D. Roussel, of Florida, will on the top lift the lids which are ever the litustrate " Christmas in Florida," assisted oven. by Mrs. Benjamin F. Kelley, Directress of the Central Conservatory of Music, 7 West Four-Tree Fund.

Messrs, Hardman. Peck & Co., the piano Manufacturers, have kindly donated their elebright to insure good coffee. Boil it out occa-

BROS. SHIRTERS.

Have us Make your Six for nine dollars.

> Shirters to the People, Cortlandt Street, No. 47

> > Near 14th Street

Sixth Avenue, No. 211,

BRILL BROS.,

HOUSE AND HOME "I WAS A TOTAL WRECK,

The World's Food for One Day. The average healthy man cals nearly two and sunny times. Invalids need generally dren in school and brought home a testimo- and a half pounds of solid foot in a day. plenty of bed rest, but by going early to bed. against this we can set the small or consumption of children and the delicate members of civilized communities. Now, as there are, day. according to the most careful computations, 1.497,000,000 human beings on the planet Preverts Slamming of Doors. we may conclude that 3,607,770,000 pounds, or about 1,610,612 tons of solid food are eaten every day the world over. With regard to the drinking capacity of the human race, as the proper individual allowance is nearly two and three-quarter pluts a day, we may take of liquid in some form or other, that is to say, enough to fill a reservoir 144 yards long, 144

Mountain Dew Pudding. This dainty dessert requires one plat of cents—a small contribution from an admirer milk, yells of two eggs, two tablespoonbut he is bimself a very temperate eater and of the noble work which the Xmas-Tree Fund of the occount, che-half cap of rolled nortrays. drinker. cracker, one teaspoonful of lemon fulce. Mix all together; bake half an hour. When done cover with a frosting made of the whites of Emperor William II. is a heavy eater. He prefers nourishing dishes, however, to the refined examples of the cook's art. After the warming both he is served with an English brenkfast, consisting of tea, bread, eggs in some form, cotellette, beefsteak, &c. His lunch, usually eaten alone, is also rich. He takes at this time soup, meat, vegetables, roast and sweets. Dinner is announced at 5 o'clock. At this meal the Empress and chance guests help the Emperor in whiling away the time. inclosed please find $1 which we collected it does not consist usually of more dishes 02 to help you make happy the poor children on than the other meals, but great care is taken in selecting them. The Empress often makes up the bill of fare herself and tries to choose > punch, seldom taking beer. His favorite wines are Moselle and Rhine wines.

Waterproof Box Coats. A waterproof cloth is now to be found in ail the shops of which to make the swellest sort of a box coat, neither cumbersome nor heavy in weight. These will te as thoroughly rain-defying as the hideous abominamassTree Fund. It is the proceeds of a little tions which women have been wearing the votion of the doctors and nurses and others fair held at 70 West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth strest.

MAY DEVAUL BROWN, DOROTHY OPPENHEIM.

ORNOTHY OPPENHEIM.

ORNOTHY OPPENHEIM.

She Built Up a Paper.

Mrs. Ethel Comyns, the sole proprietor and editor of the Feathered World, published in sick in Hamburg, but, by their letters in our London, is one of the few women who own, edit and run a paper entirely unassisted. Mrs. Compas was obliged to fight the world before her girlhood was past. In partnership with another lady she started the second typewriting office in London, and it was there she met her To one cupful of chopped raisins add a cuphusband, Alexander Comyns, the editor ful of rolled crackers, one cupful of good of Poultry. That paper Mr. Comyns left molasses, a cuptul of dark-brown sugar, onewere given to me by my sister for candy, but to start the Feathered World, but before he prefer to send them to you, because I hought that they would be better spent for the poor calidren. Mearon Joyce. three small children she was not too his half cupful of vinegar, one-half a tablespoon ful of cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful three small children. She sie ped into his vacant chair, the knowledge she had gained brough helping him being lavaluable to her. That her courage and talents have been re spare, but I know every penny helps, and | warded is certain, for in the eighteen months since she has ruled in the modest office at 273 strand the paper has doubled its circulation and is steadily increasing in popularity.

> For Rough Hands. Take three drams of powdered borax, three-eighths ounce of glycerine, six ounces of quently. It will make the skin smooth and enamel tipred with brass. Have a gay quite What the Prpe Eats. The most temperate of all earth's poten- Let the curtains be of cretonne, lined with of coffce and milk alone. At night the aged basket and table, the writing-desk and the ruler of the Church eats two eggs, a small hanging book-shelves, and have all the pretty piece of chicken, as a rule, and some fruit. He drinks at the same time some Bordeaux. wall. Make your little daughter's room a until bed time the Pope takes no nourishment with the exception of a bit of bread dipped in milk.

On fast days fish and macarcul are substi-

Experience Teaches. To cream butter heat your bowl a little. then carefully drain and use as the lining of the Parlor Usually Receives special for the parlor of t with the hand.

parts immediately in pure melted tallow, then wash out the tallow and the ink will have disappeared.

Bread crusts should be dried in the oven and put away in paper bags until wanted for use. If your oven is too hot you can cool it by putting in a dish of water. If it is too hot

To wash calico without fading put three scour thoroughly. The Czar's Meals.

The Emperor of Russia is a hearty eater Even at breakfast, tea, eggs, ham and beef must be placed on his table. At luncheon, which is eaten about 11 o'clock, the Czar takes bouillon, with eggs, mutton chops and cold game. As a rule, at this meal he drinks three cups of strong coffee. At 2 o'clock he cats a dish of milk and rice. Dinner is served at 6 o'clock. It is a hearty meal, after the French pattern. Before going to bed he stills the pangs of hunger with ten and cof-

Get Plenty of Bleep.

Early rising promotes cheerfulness of temper, opens up new capacities of enjoyment and channels of delight to which the sluggard must be insensible. It increases the sum of human existence by stesling from indolence hours that would else be utterly wasted, and, better still, unquer tionably conduces to longevity. All long livers have been early risers. Now, the habit of retiring to bed at late hours will hard;y admit of early rising, therefore the necessity of refraining from the one in order to secure the advantages of the other. From six to eight hours are generally neid to be sufficient, and no doubt on the average are so.

Our sleep is regulated much by the season. In Winter people lie longer on account, as they say, of its being too dark to get up early. There is some plausibility in the reason, but the system in coid and dark Royal superior to all other baking powders in purity and strength.

weather is more prope to sleep than in light.

plenty of bed rest, but they should secure it There is more health and strength to be found to the practice of seeing the sun rise than in looking at it in any other part of the

A new invention is a rubber door-stop and hold-back to prevent the slamming of doors and the marring of walls. A rosette containing a rubber ring is screwed into the door, white a knob surmounted with an acorpshaped ball of rubber is fastened to the baseboard. When the door is thrown back the washed down with about 4,047,888,000 pints knob engages in the ring, holding the door

> Kings and Queens at Table. The Emperor of Austria sets the richest and best table of all European potentates.

King Humbert of Italy might be called a vegetarian, as he lives almost entirely upon fruit and vegetables. He drinks only Bordeaux wines mixed with water. Queen Victoria is very fond of Scotch simple and perfectly trustworthy rule A simple and perfectly trustworthy rule through my nose. My for fried cakes and crullers calls for a pint of cold milk, three eggs, two cups of granulated bugar, built a cup of butter, an even teaspoon- and hawked from night till morning. sugar, haif a cup of butter, an even teaspoorful of salt, three heaping tenspoonfuls of baking powder, and flour enough to make a dough as soft as you can handle. Mix the sugar and butter together, add the eggs well beaten to the milk, and add this inixture to the tutter and sugar. Add about four cups of flour, through which the baking powder he favorite dishes of her husband. If the Emperor has taken much exercise during the and cold meats at least are always ready. His Majesty is extremely fond of "bowle" or and roll it out. Cut it into circular cakes, give each one a twist and fry about six or eight minutes in hot fat. Doughnuts require ten minutes, but crullers cook sooner.

The Queen Regent of Spain remains true to the Austrian cooking, being especially fond of Vienna bread.

> American Heroines in Bamburg. Of two young women well known in Philadelphia, the Review of Reviews says: " Let the world commend the enthusiasm and dethose who were nearest her.

In a meas of Misses Kentaley, nurses, who be- ONLY So. MANTH TILL JANUARY 1. long to a family always swift to help the unfortunate, and who on this occasion rendered double service; for they not only nursed the sick in Hamburg, but, by their letters in our tients suffering with catarrh for $5 a month medical journals, enabled the profession at and furnish them with all necessary medicina home to profit by their experience. They were like Corser in his campaigns-at once active combatasts and special correspondents."

each of grated nutmeg, allspice and cloves. Stir thoroughly and add a tablespoonful of melted butter. Bake in a deep ple-dish between two crusts. Your Little Daughter's Room. If you wish to arrange your little daughter's room so that it shall be both attractive and simple paper with blue and make a dado of creme cretonne, stamped with blue and yellow daffodlis. Let the celling paper be of yellow and white and paint the woodwork rose water. Mix well together and apply fre. cream. Have a brass bedstead or a white in white and yellow. Mark the towels, sheets and pillow-cases with her monogram in blue and yellow, and one daffodil in the corners. and innecent pictures you can crowd on the haven to which in the dreary years to come tuted for the chicken. From dinner time she may look back with sweet memories

Mock Mines Pie.

Macaroni Timbala bals," take one-third of a pound of long mac-aroni, boil according to previous directions: HOME FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON. The bowl must not be hot enough to melt the fire of two ounces of butter, two tablespoon- butter. It may be creamed with a spoon or fuls of flour and one-half pint of rich stock.

ARE PREPARED TO SHOW THE BEST LIN. A pound of sweetbreads are boiled and then OF PARLOR SUITS THAT WE HAVE EVE To take this out of linen dip the spotted cut into small cubes; one-half pound of cox. MADE UP. PRICES FROM $45 TO $200. combs are also boiled, and a quantity of PARLOR TABLES AT $2.50 TO $10.00, PAR French mushrooms, equal to the contents of LOR CABINETS AT $25 TO $40, PARLOS a small can, is gently simmered for a few MANTEL MIRRORS $9 TO $50. minutes; then the coxcombs, sweetbrends and mushrooms are mixed with the gravy and poured into the lined mould; with pepper and sait to taste. Bake in a hot oven about CHEAP.

thirty minutes.

Venison Steaks. Steaks are usually out from the leg or haunch. As it requires but a very short time Central Conservatory of Music, 7 West Four-teenth street, on Wednesday evening Dec. 14. at Hardman Hall, Fifth avenue and Nine-teenth street. The entire receipts will be given to The Evening World's Christmas-tree Find. leave it in until it becomes cold, then wash is ready before broiling. Now put the dish in and ringe. iling water to heat; put in it a piece of but ter the size of a walnut, a quarter teaspoonbright to insure good coffee. Boil it out occasionally with sear, water and wood ashes and ful of salt, two tablespoonsful of port wine and a tablespoonful of current jelly. Grease the bars of the gridiron with suct, lay the steaks on it and broll over a clear, hot fire, turning almost constantly. If your steaks are a half inch thick eight minutes will broil OURS is them. Put them in the heated dish and turn them in the mixture once or twice. Serve immediately on heated plates. The quantities given are for two steak . Ventson steaks may also be broiled and served the same as beefsteaks, with a simple dressing of salt, pepper and butter.

NOW I AM A CURED MAN,

HE HAS GAINED SEVENTEEN POUNDS.

The ringing words of Mr. Ludlow, over his own signature, for Doctors McCoy and Snow. All those who begin trent. ment before January I will be treated until cured for $5 a month, which ineludes all necessary medicines and Doctor McCoy's new catarrh remedy.

Mr. J. H. Ludlow, who lives at Bridge Hamp ton, Long Island, made the following statement and signed bis name to it. Below is a fac simile of his signature.

"Last spring I found myself rapidly failing in health. In fact, I was a total wreck, as a result of the grip. I consulted and treated with several physicians in Brooklyn and New York out received no relief or benefit. By severs friends who were unde treatment with Doctors McCoy and Snow I was induced to consult these physicians, and I place: myself in their bands of August 24. I had severe rain in both lungs. I coughed and raised a great deal. I could not sleep nights and was a sort of breath. I had no appetite, and, in fact, felt so weak that I was a total wreck. It was im. ME. H. J. LUDLOW. a long breath or breaths through my nose. My has been sifted. Beat in a little more flour long since vanished. In fact, I say to-day the to make as stiff a batter as you can stir, like I am well. I mean I am sound in every way. a soft dough. Now flour a board, turn the dough out on it, dredge a little flour over it praise and thankfulness to Doctors McCoy an and roll it out. Out it into circular cakes, give each one a twist and fry about six or give each one a twist and fry about six or suffering from troubles of head, throat ar lungs go to these skilful, courteous physicia ors McCoy and Snow. Moreover, let me ad it will be performing a pleasure and conscient tions duty to answer any inquiries, personal o

> Harry J. Ludlow And All Medicines and the New Remedy Until Cured.

Doctors McCoy and Snow will treat all pe

by mail, that I may receive concerning my ca

ing themselves of this offer before January will be treated until cured at the same low r DOCTORS McCOY AND SNOW (FORMERLY DRS. M'COY AND WILDMAN,) Offices, 5 East 42d Street, New York Where all curable cases are treated with su cess.

If you live at a distance write for a sympto

Consultation at office or by mail free of charms Address all mail to 5 East 42d street, No. York City. Office hours-9 to 11 A. M., 2 to 4 P. M., 6

WHISPER GENTLY. LET US REMIND YOU THAT CHRISTMAS I For a dish liked in Italy and called "Tim- COMING AND YOU WILL NOT HAVE AS

IF YOU WANT A GOOD BRUSSELS OR VI

VET CARPET WE ARE SELLING TH CREDIT TERMS TO SUIT YOU.

3 & 5 West 14th St

ook for the sign J. H. Little & Co. over the

THE MAN IN MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCE BUYS OF US HIS Furniture, Carpefs, Bedding, Olicioths, Stoyes, Clocks, Pictures, Curtains, on 1313 to 1315 Third Ave., bet. 75th and 76th Sts.

